

MOONSPELL"Opus Diabolicum"

Release: October 31, 2025 (Napalm Records)

Formats: DVD/Blu-ray, 2CD, Black & Colored Vinyl, Digital

The heavy metallic power of Portuguese dark metal pioneers MOONSPELL meets the classical magnitude of the 45-piece Lisbon Sinfonietta Orchestra - one of Portugal's finest orchestras - conducted by maestro Vasco Pearce de Azevedo!

October 26, 2024 saw MOONSPELL performing their first-ever symphonic show, dubbed "Opus Diabolicum", at the MEO Arena in Lisbon, Portugal's capital city. The band made history at this unforgettable live event, adding another magnificent chapter to both metal music made in Portugal and their very own legacy. Now, a year later, this monumental event can be yours to view anytime, available in DVD/Blu-ray, 2 CD, Black and Colored Vinyl and Digital formats via Napalm Records on October 31, 2025.

On "Opus Diabolicum", the band revisits their classics and their bombastic album

"1755" at a one-off, exclusive show and their biggest production to date.

No MOONSPELL fan, anywhere in the world, should miss their chance to add this rare and massive performance to their own collection!
